

Western Washington Chapter

CHAPTER INFORMATION

The Western Washington Chapter of the International Public Management Association for Human Resources is a non-profit organization whose aim is to provide current and beneficial information in the field of human resource administration. The goal is to provide continuing education and training opportunities to human resource professionals. Membership offers the opportunity to network at the local level and to meet with other professionals to discuss current issues and resolve problems that arise in the daily practice of the profession.

ACTIVITIES

Membership activities include lively and informative chapter meetings scheduled on a regular basis. These include workshops and seminars, as well as round table discussions, which allow members an opportunity to meet with colleagues and exchange ideas.

COMMITTEES

Participation on numerous committees allows members an opportunity to influence chapter programs and activities, and enhances the benefits received from membership.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is available to any person who is interested in improved human resource management in public employment and whose experience has enabled them to cooperate in the advancement of professionalism and knowledge in public human resource. Students in institutions of higher education whose studies include human resource administration are also eligible for membership at a reduced rate. Membership terms begin in January of each year and end December 31st. Renewals are due January 1st of the following year.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

An application form is attached for your convenience. Please review and complete all items. Be sure this form is signed and is accompanied by the appropriate dues remittance (please do not send cash) and send it to the address listed on the back panel.
