IPMA-HR International Activities

International Training Conference
September 26, 2018
Neil Reichenberg
IPMA-HR Executive Director
International Activities

- International members
- IPMA-Canada affiliate
- Relationship with the Division of Public Administration and Development Management at the United Nations and other international civil service organizations
International Activities

- Exchange agreements:
  - Institute of Municipal People Practitioners in Southern Africa
  - Local government association in Scotland
International Activities

- People’s Republic of China – Training and certification program since 2004
  - Over 17,000 certified

- Africa Public Sector Human Resource Managers’ Network – IPMA-HR worked with the UN in the establishment of the network & we are a partner organization
  - Participated in 4 of their 5 conferences
  - Presented papers and wrote a chapter in a book
International Activities

- Sri Lanka – Competency training and certification exam offered several times including in September 2016
  - Sri Lanka network being established
  - Participated in several conferences
- Thailand – Partnered with the Civil Service Commission on the delivery of the competency training and certification exam
International Activities

- South Korea – participating in upcoming Global Public Sector HR Conference in November 2018
- Brazil – Planning seminar during 2018
- United Arab Emirates – delivered competency training & certification exam and participated in several conferences
- Trained HR professionals in Iraq
International Activities

- International delegations – we host about 10 international delegations per year at our headquarters
- French MBA students – meet with MBA students from Versailles University who are participating in a program at Georgetown University
Additional Information

For additional information, please contact:

- Neil Reichenberg
- Executive Director
- IPMA-HR
- nreichenberg@ipma-hr.org